Supporting the Attainment of Quality Standards in Childcare Services

BCCN TRAINING UNIT

The BCCN works to support the attainment of quality standards in childcare services.

As part of this the BCCN has developed a comprehensive training unit which has initiated and supported the development and delivery of both in-service and nationally certified training programmes.

The impact of this work has:

- ✈ Increased the number of qualified trainers
- ✈ Improved the content and the range of training available
- ✈ Enhanced the knowledge and skills of the childcare work force
- ✈ Improved outcomes for children in services
- ✈ Facilitated the delivery of cross border training
- ✈ Increased support for the childcare sector through working in partnership with other agencies

BCCN offers a range of accredited training courses at FETAC level 5 that lead to the following awards:

- ✈ Childcare Award
- ✈ School Age Childcare Award

In addition we also have a range of locally developed modules that can be included in the Childcare Award as follows:

- ✈ Childminding Practice (L21949)
- ✈ Curriculum for Pre-school Services (L22583)
- ✈ Shaping Healthier Futures (Smart Start) (L22584)
